2010 ANNUAL REPORT PCEI

PCEI Income Sources 2010

Total 2010 Income (audited): $2,011,729

Grants & Contracts: includes foundation grants and government grants and contracts.

Service Fees: includes environmental education service fees and fees paid by AmeriCorps sponsors as match to the federal funds that support PCEI's AmeriCorps members and placement programs.

Other Income: includes income from such things as plant sales, special events, interest income, endowment income, consulting fees, and service and eqipment fees.

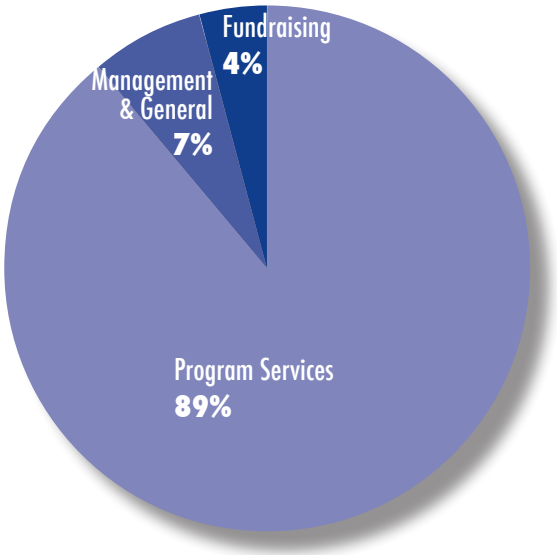
PCEI Expenses 2010

Total 2010 Expenses (audited): $1,742,266



Income exceeded expenses by $269,463. Most of this was grant funds received in 2010 but designated for 2011 project expenses.

From the Executive Director

2010 was a challenging, yet interesting, year financially for the Palouse-Clearwater Environmental Institute (PCEI). Our major effort on AmeriCorps placement came to a temporary end, while we landed a major contract to complete Paradise Creek restoration work at the University of Idaho campus.

It was difficult to say goodbye to four of our dear, full-time staff members due to the loss of the AmeriCorps funding; yet it was exciting to welcome 24 seasonal employees who planted nearly 19,000 trees and shrubs along the newly exposed Paradise Creek as it meanders through the University of Idaho.

The year also marked a series of program releases; in 2010, we were able to declare success on the following projects that PCEI was instrumental in helping to start, and which became independent from our work: Backyard Harvest, the McCall Outdoor Science School (MOSS), and the Moscow Community Garden. We are proud of the work of all three programs that have grown over the years and continue to make a great impact in our region. These three programs add to the many ideas that PCEI has helped to nurture and spawn over our 25 year history.

The year closed as we began to celebrate 25 years of "connecting people place and community" in the Palouse-Clearwater region! Thank you, members, donors and volunteers for your invaluable contributions to the community, the environment, and your local environmental organization. PCEI will continue working toward your commitment to sustainable living.

Tom Lamar
Executive Director

Executive Director, Tom Lamar, stands next to the center post of a Karymor merry-go-round built by his grandfather in the 1930's. The Karymor was installed at the PCEI Nature Center in April 2010.

2010 SUPPORTERS

Our 24th year of service to the region saw a large growth of renewed members and new donors and volunteers! Thank you for your support! (Support categories in clude cash and in kind giving. For gifts of time, see "2010 Volunteers".)

Have you been recognized accurately?

Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy in this listing. Unfortunately, mistakes are sometimes made in spite of our care and intentions. If your name or that of your partner, family member or business/organization was omitted, misspelled, included in the wrong category, please contact PCEI's Membership Coordinator, Aly Lamar, at (208) 882-1444, aly@pcei.org, or at PCEI, PO Box 8596, Moscow, ID 83843, so that we may extend our apologies and note the change in our records.

2010 VOLUNTEERS

In 2010, PCEI volunteers contributed 9,998 hours of their time – valued at $21.36 per hour by federally accepted rates! Their service matches many grants provided by funders of PCEI projects. Volunteers' efforts do double duty: they get the work done and leverage extra funds all while having fun!
